

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Our present way of life relies heavily on a large use of nonrenewable energy; and,

WHEREAS, The State of South Dakota imports approximately 95 percent of it's energy, including natural gas, oil and coal; and,

WHEREAS, The conservation of energy can have a substantial impact on both the State's ability of meeting future energy needs and on the stability of social, political and economic institutions around the world; and,

WHEREAS, The education of our young people in energy conservation is a step towards energy independence:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim March 19, 1982, as

NATIONAL ENERGY EDUCATION DAY (NEED)

In South Dakota in order to promote the conservation of energy as a vital, important issue. On this day I urge all schools to hold and support NEED activities in their schools and communities to make energy conservation utmost in the minds of our young people and citizens.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Sixth Day of January, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Two

WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

ALICE KUNDERT, SECRETARY OF STATE
